

2022: UIA
Year of Design
for Health

2022: UIA Year of Design for Health

The logo consists of two central graphic elements: the image of the house and the heart. The house was shown as the main element of urbanism. The heart is the most important element of health in buildings and cities, which indicates the value of creating safe space for all its inhabitants.

ARTHUR SCHMIDT