The UIA Commission on the UN Sustainable Development Goals
In this era of population shifts, climate change and unprecedented levels of urbanisation, architects have an important role in responding to the complex challenges of the built environment.

The UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) set a framework for this agenda, as well as for alleviating poverty, protecting the planet and ensuring prosperity at a global scale.

The UIA is well positioned to create a bridge between the initiatives of the UN and the practical activities of architects around the world.

Through the establishment of a Commission that responds directly to the SDGs, the UIA can be influential in raising awareness, creating knowledge, facilitating communication and disseminating information across its global network of members.

The Commission aims to ensure that architects are not just responsive to the new Agenda for Sustainable Development, but prescriptive in its implementation and evolution.
1. To respond to each of the 17 goals through adopted policy statements.

2. To have a visible and active presence at important UN meetings, including COPs and World Urban Forums.

3. To champion the importance of architecture in the development of well-functioning sustainable societies.

4. To establish a platform for exchange between members of the UIA.

5. To promulgate the Commission’s policy statements as widely as possible.

PROJECT PRIORITIES 2018

1. PUBLICATION explaining and ‘translating’ the SDGs / New Urban Agenda for the architectural profession
   - Illustrated guide / publication, introducing the sustainable development goals and what they mean for architects and architectural practice.
   - Encouraging sustainable and ethical practice through the SDG framework.
   - What architects can do, links to resources and list of benefits.
   - Include case studies from all regions of exemplar projects, analysed through practice standards, labour conditions, environmental credentials etc?
   - In print, digital version and open-source website

2. COP24 - Poland
   - The Steering Commission will aim for getting access to the main event, and arrange side-events.

3. COMMUNICATION CAMPAIGN
   - Communication strategy to be developed
   - Facebook page expanded, but also build email list (connected to website?) for newsletter, communication etc.
- 24th Conference of the Parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) will be held in Katowice, Poland.

- COP24 will take place from 3-14 December 2018.

- As an NGO accredited to the UN, the UIA should be an active participant of the Conference.

- The Commission will make a strategic effort to promote an architectural agenda.

- The Commission invites members to join and lobby their national delegations.
