WORLD ARCHITECTURE DAY 2019

World Architecture Day 2019 is just around the corner! On October 7, UIA Member Sections all over the world will host events to mark the occasion, which this year is themed "Architecture... Housing for all". In the UIA President's declaration, Thomas Vonier highlights the need to "turn our creative and political energies to providing decent housing for all."

The UIA would like to hear about your plans for this year's World Architecture Day at: news@uia-architectes.org
